

Greensboro Historical Society
Annual Meeting Presentation

Slavery in Vermont?
Dr. Harvey Amani Whitfield

Monday, August 11, 7:00 pm, Fellowship Hall

Dr. Harvey Whitfield

For the August 11 Annual Meeting of the GHS we are honored to welcome Dr. Whitfield, Associate Professor of History at UVM to speak on slavery in early Vermont. Vermonters are proud that their State Constitution was the first to forbid slavery and most assume that there was none. However, Dr. Whitfield's research led him learn that such was not the case. He will be talk about his discoveries that are now found in his latest book, The Problem of Slavery in Early Vermont, 1777-1810. Be sure to come to hear a much sought after speaker uncover some hidden history of our state.

The program will be preceded by a brief annual meeting.
